STATEMENT ON SAFE SPORT

Larch Hills Nordic Society has a fundamental obligation and responsibility to protect the health, safety and physical and mental well-being of every individual that is involved with the Larch Hills Nordic Society community.

Larch Hills Nordic Society takes any situation involving misconduct, Prohibited Behavior or Maltreatment very seriously. For this reason, Larch Hills Nordic Society is committed to enacting and enforcing strong, clear, and effective policies and processes for preventing and addressing all forms of misconduct, Prohibited Behavior, or Maltreatment.

The policies are intended to promote a safe sport environment in a manner that allows for consistent, immediate, appropriate and meaningful action should any issues arise, and they are also intended to prevent issues from arising in the first place by communicating expected standards of Behavior.

Should any individuals involved with Larch Hills Nordic Society, including but not limited to Athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, and parents/guardians of Athletes, wish to report any instance of misconduct, Prohibited Behavior or Maltreatment, they may do so in accordance with Larch Hills Nordic Society's Discipline and Complaints Policy, as amended from time to time.

Larch Hills Nordic Society acknowledges that Nordiq Canada adopted the Universal Code of Conduct to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport (UCCMS) on January 31, 2023. As a cross country ski club registered with a Division Member of Nordiq Canada, the UCCMS shall be considered as incorporated by reference in the Larch Hills Nordic Society Code of Conduct and Ethics and all Larch Hills Nordic Society policies and will apply, as amended from time to time, to all UCCMS Participants. Any amendments to the UCCMS by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) shall come into effect immediately upon their adoption by the SDRCC, without the need for any further action by Larch Hills Nordic Society, Cross Country BC or Nordiq Canada.

Purpose

- 2. This Policy describes how Larch Hills Nordic Society aims to provide a safe sport environment.

Commitment to True Sport Principles

- 3. Larch Hills Nordic Society commits to the True Sport Principles which are:
 - a) Go for It – Rise to the challenge – always strive for excellence. Discover how good you can be.
 - b) Play Fair – Play honestly – obey both the letter and spirit of the rules. Winning is only meaningful when competition is fair.
 - c) Respect Others – Show respect for everyone involved in creating your sporting experience, both on and off the field. Win with dignity and lose with grace.
 - d) Keep it Fun – Find the joy of sport. Keep a positive attitude both on and off the field.
 - e) Stay Healthy – Place physical and mental health above all other considerations – avoid unsafe activities. Respect your body and keep in shape.
 - f) Include Everyone – Share sport with others. Ensure everyone has a place to play.
 - g) Give Back – Find ways to show your appreciation for the community that supports your sport and helps make it possible.

Commitment to a Sport Environment Free from Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment

- 4. Larch Hills Nordic Society makes the following commitments to a sport environment free from Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment:
 - a) All Participants in sport can expect to play, practice and compete, work, and interact in an environment free from Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment.

- b) Addressing the causes and consequences of Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment is a collective responsibility and requires the deliberate efforts of all Participants, sport stakeholders, sport club administrators and organization leaders.
- c) Participants in positions of trust and authority have the general responsibility to protect the health and well-being of all other Participants.
- d) Adult Participants have a specific ethical and statutory duty and the additional responsibility to respond to incidents of Prohibited Behavior or Maltreatment involving Minors and other Vulnerable Participants.
- e) All Participants recognize that Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment can occur regardless of age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, race, ethnicity, Indigenous status, or level of physical and intellectual disability and their intersections. Moreover, it is recognized that those from traditionally marginalized groups have increased vulnerability to experiences of Prohibited Behavior and Maltreatment.
- f) All Participants recognize that individuals who have experienced Prohibited Behavior or Maltreatment may experience a range of effects that may emerge at different time points and that can profoundly affect their lives.
- g) All adults working with children and youth have a duty to prevent or mitigate opportunities for misconduct.
- h) In recognition of the historic vulnerability to discrimination and violence amongst some groups, and that continues to persist today, Participants in positions of trust and authority have a duty to incorporate strategies to recognize systemic bias, unconscious bias, and to respond quickly and effectively to discriminatory practices.

Pledge

- 5. The stakeholders, members, and leaders of Larch Hills Nordic Society are expected to live by the True Sport Principles and Larch Hills Nordic Society pledges to embed the True Sport Principles in its governance and operations in the following ways:
 - a) Conduct Standards – Larch Hills Nordic Society will adopt comprehensive conduct standards that are expected to be followed by Participants

- b) Athlete Protection – Larch Hills Nordic Society will provide coaches and other stakeholders with general and sport-specific athlete protection guidelines
- c) Dispute Resolution and Investigations – Larch Hills Nordic Society will have dispute resolution processes that are confidential and procedurally fair and that require independent investigation for certain alleged violations of the conduct standards
- d) Strategy – Larch Hills Nordic Society will have strategic plans that reflect the organization’s mission, vision, and values
- e) Governance – Larch Hills Nordic Society will have diverse sport leaders and will adhere to principles of good governance
- f) Risk Management – Larch Hills Nordic Society will intentionally manage risks to their operations and events

Conduct Standards

- 6. Larch Hills Nordic Society has adopted a Code of Conduct and Ethics that describes standards of conduct and Behavior for all Participants. General standards of conduct apply to all Participants and specific standards are described for positions within the organization. The Code of Conduct and Ethics will have specific stakeholder sections, including but not limited, to:
 - a) Athletes
 - b) Coaches
 - c) Officials
 - d) Directors and Committee Members
 - e) Parents and Spectators

- d) Mechanism for provisional suspension of individuals pending the conclusion of the process
- e) Non-biased and experienced case managers, decision-makers and/or investigators
- f) Protection from reprisal for submitting complaints
- g) Independence of appeal procedures, when appeals are permitted
- h) Opportunity for alternative dispute resolution
- i) Investigations of complaints as circumstances merit
- j) In-event discipline procedures (when an event does not have its own disciplinary procedures)

Obligations – Reporting and Third Party Case Management

17. The policies of Larch Hills Nordic Society include requirements that certain complaints must be reported to government entities, local police services, and/or child protection agencies when required by the circumstances.

18. The policies of Larch Hills Nordic Society include requirements that complaints must be received by an independent third party designated by the Cross Country BC who has no conflict of interest or bias.
19. The policies of Larch Hills Nordic Society include direction on the referral of alleged breaches of the UCCMS by a UCCMS Participant to the Office of the Sport Integrity Commissioner (OSIC), also known as Abuse-Free Sport.

Records

20. Larch Hills Nordic Society will retain records of decisions that have been made pursuant to the organization's policies. These records may be shared with other individuals or organizations, including but not limited to, national sport organizations, provincial/territorial sport organizations, multi-sport organizations, and government entities.

Governance and Operations

21. Larch Hills Nordic Society will have a comprehensive plan in which athlete protection and safe sport are top priorities for the organization.
22. Larch Hills Nordic Society will pursue a governance structure and organizational culture that reflects the diversity of the athletes and stakeholders within the sport, that adheres to all applicable federal and/or provincial/territorial legislation, and that moves toward a national alignment strategy for the sport in Canada.
23. Larch Hills Nordic Society will continually monitor and evaluate their policies, practices, and procedures.

Privacy

24. The collection, use and disclosure of any personal information pursuant to this Policy is subject to Larch Hills Nordic Society usual policies and practices regarding private and/or confidential information.
